

Shanghai Dazhong Public Utilities (Group) Co., Ltd.
Terms of Reference of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee of the Board of Directors
(Amended)

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 In order to further establish and enhance the system for managing remuneration and appraisal of the directors and senior management of Shanghai Dazhong Public Utilities (Group) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), and to improve its corporate governance structure, the Company established the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee of the board of directors (the “Board”) and formulated these rules of procedures in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China, Code of Corporate Governance for Listed Companies, the Articles of Association of Shanghai Dazhong Public Utilities (Group) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”), the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Listing Rules”), as well as the provisions of other relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulatory documents.

Article 2 As a specific working body established by the Board in accordance with the Articles of Association, the main responsibilities of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee are to formulate standards for appraising directors and senior management of the Company and conduct appraisals; and to formulate and review the policies for and proposals on the remuneration of directors and senior management of the Company in accordance with relevant guidelines of the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of the State Council. The Committee shall be accountable to the Board.

Article 3 Senior management as referred to herein refers to the manager, deputy manager, chief financial officer and secretary to the Board appointed by the Board. The scope of appraisal of these terms of reference does not apply to the independent directors who did not receive remuneration from the Company.

Chapter 2 Composition

Article 4 The Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be comprised of three directors with a majority of independent non-executive directors.

Article 5 The members of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be nominated by the chairman of the Board or not less than one third of all directors for election by the Board.

Article 6 The Remuneration and Appraisal shall have a chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director, and be in charge of the work of the Committee.

Article 7 The term of office of the members of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be the same as that of the directors. A member of the Committee may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon the expiry of his/her term of office. If any member ceases to be a director of the Company or ceases to have the independence as set out in the Articles of Association and the Listing Rules during his/her term of office, he/she shall immediately cease to be a member of the Committee. The vacancy shall be filled up by the Board in accordance with the Article 4 to Article 6 above.

Article 8 The Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall establish a working group which is responsible for providing information on the operation of the Company and relevant information of other persons to be appraised, preparing for meetings of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee and implementing resolutions of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee. The members of the working group do not need to be the member of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee.

Chapter 3 Powers and Duties

Article 9 The major powers and duties of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee include:

- (1) to study the standards for appraising directors, managers and other senior management, to conduct appraisals and give recommendations to the Board on establishing formal and transparent procedures to formulate those remuneration policies;
- (2) to study and review the remuneration policies and plans for directors, managers and senior management;
- (3) to determine, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management, or make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management, including benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments (including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment);
- (4) to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive directors;

- (5) to supervise the implementation of the remuneration system of the Company;
- (6) to examine and approve the proposed remunerations to the management according to the corporate goals and objectives formulated by the Board;
- (7) to consider the remuneration, time devoted and duties of relevant positions in comparable companies and appointment criteria for other positions in its subsidiaries;
- (8) to review and approve the compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with the contractual terms or is otherwise fair and reasonable and not excessive;
- (9) to review and approve compensation arrangements relating to the dismissal or removal of directors for reason of misconduct to ensure they are consistent with the contractual terms or are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (10) to ensure that no director or any of his/her associates is involved in determining his/her own remuneration;
- (11) to address other matters as authorized by the Board.

Article 10 The Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be accountable to the Board. Any proposals of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be submitted to the Board for consideration and approval;

All cases, materials and information considered and discussed by the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be made available to the Board for its study and decision in the form of report, recommendation or summary.

Article 11 The remuneration plans for the directors of the Company proposed by the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee shall be approved by the Board and submitted to a shareholders' general meeting for approval before implementation. The remuneration plans for the senior management of the Company shall be submitted to the Board for approval before implementation. The Board shall have the power to veto remuneration plans or proposals which are contrary to the interests of the shareholders.
